The Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Unconventioned service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings Calcutta.

Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows'

Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. The Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are (1) that widowed daughters incapable of re-marriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bill aims at the improvement of the bundhs and tanks, which are the principal sources of irrigation in west Bengal, and have mostly gone out of use. It proposes to improve them through the agency of union boards, the cost being in the first instance advanced by the Collector, and subsequently recovered from the persons benefited as a union rate by instalments spread over a number of years. In April, 1935, at a conference of union boards in Bankura district which was presided over by the District Magistrate, a resolution was passed asking for legislation on the lines indicated in the Bill. It will be necessary to amend the Village Self-Government Act in the manner indicated in this Bill to give the union boards power to carry out the works. The other clauses of the Bill are self explanatory and need no explanation.

Repeal.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill is intended to do away with the corruption, disadvantage or deception that is being practised by many shop-keepers, especially by many grocers, in almost all parts of this Province. These grocers in their dealings with people generally use two sets of weights. The standard of one set is called the pucca seer and the standard of the other set is called the katcha seer. Both these seers are derived from the uniform unit "tola." But it is curious to note that the seer of one set is different from the seer of the other set in magnitude though almost similar in form. The pucca seer consists of 80 tolas and the katcha seer consists of 60 tolas. Grocers use pucca weights at the time of purchase, but they generally use katcha weights, i.e., weights of less magnitude, at the time of sale. The unnecessary use of two sets of weights instead of one is highly anomalous and helps corruption in dealings. The vast majority of people of this unfortunate country is illiterate and it is an obvious fact that when simple and illiterate customers come to dishonest grocers to purchase rice, pulse, etc., they are often cheated by them in respect of weight of these things. The grocers often sell things in katcha weights but the customers are given to understand, that things have been sold to them in pucca weights. The customers are more frequently cheated at the time when they purchase many things in small quantities. The two sets of weights are almost similar in shape and size and are undistinguishable to ordinary simple folk. Besides this, these customers, illiterate as they are, cannot even read the inscription printed on these weights. It is more curious to note that in certain districts there are some other kinds of seers besides the said pucca and katcha seers, such as 82 tola seer, 84 and odd tola seer, 90 tola seer, 120 tola seer and so on. If at any time a clever customer detects the wrong weighing of a shop-keeper, he acquits himself of the charge by saying that it was his mistake. In these days when corruption has become so prevalent there is absolutely no reason why the dealers unnecessarily keep two sets of weights of undistinguishable form and magnitude for weighing and selling commodities at one place and at one time. Similar deception is being practised in respect of measures of capacity too. It is now universally felt that for honest dealings, a uniform system of weights and measures of capacity should be adopted everywhere and that all such weights should be derived from the standard seer consisting of 80 tolas which is popularly known as the pucca seer throughout the country and which have been already adopted in Government offices and Railway departments throughout India.

It will not be out of place to note here that in Central Provinces also these difficulties were felt by people which led to the passing of C. P. Act No. II of 1928. No doubt there is an All-India Act which is an attempt to introduce standards of weights and measures of capacity throughout India, but that Central Act does not and cannot solve the peculiar difficulties of different Provinces. Hence the introduction of the present Bill is considered necessary.

*NOTE.—Explanation of these technical terms in clause 7 may be found in the Appendix.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The rights of cultivators as against their landlords have been safeguarded by the Bengal Tenancy Act, but there is no law safeguarding the rights and interests of fishermen who form a considerable part of the rural population of this Presidency. In consequence of this, the fishermen are subjected to various exactions at the hands of their immediate landlords, but more particularly from those of the middlemen. It is the general practice in all large fisheries that the proprietor in making settlement with fishermen stipulates that the catches should be sold to his nominee only and to no one else. This nominee also pays a heavy rent or present for his privilege. There are also innumerable exactions in various parts of this country under different names. This system has reduced the fishermen to extreme poverty and their condition in every district is most pitiable. This short Bill is introduced in order to ameliorate the condition of this worthy class of workers.

"The body of fishermen have legitimate rights, which must be recognised by the State. The rights of labour cannot and ought not to be ignored. Both on account of their numbers, of the households dependent upon them, and on account of the other industries involved in, and bound up with, the fisheries, the fishermen have a recognised claim to consideration. The Permanent Settlement has not stood in the way of measures being taken to regulate the relation between landlord and tenant, and various enactments have been passed in the interest of both. The mere fact that fishery rights in some waters have been given to private parties should not be an obstacle to the passing of such laws and regulations as are calculated to conserve the fisheries and increase the fish supply of the country." (Sir K. C. Gupta in the Report on Fishery Matters, 1908, pp. 102, 104, Sec. XII)

"The supply of fish in this province is much shorter than the demand and that this supply is steadily diminishing while the price of fish is increasing. Fish is admitted to be a most important article of diet among the inhabitants of this province, and may be considered to be a necessity and not a luxury." (Report on Fisheries of Eastern Bengal and Assam by Mr. K. C. De, 1910, p. 73).

"One factor which operates towards the wholesale massacre of all the edible inhabitant of the fisheries is the short term for which they are leased out. The term is too often only a year, which means one fishing season. The lessee, bent on making the most profit within the period of the lease, does not hesitate to capture and kill every fish mature or immature. He admits that many of them would have grown if spared for a year and fetched a many times higher price, but he argues that the benefit of the higher price would have been reaped by the next year's lessee who may not be himself." (Ibid, p. 72.)

"Owing to fishermen not owning much land and to the precarious nature of their calling they have small security to offer, and consequently they have to pay very high rates of interests on the Padma and the Jamuna; the rate is often 75 per cent. for one season and sometimes more. The poorer fishermen have often to borrow money for their maintenance in the slack season and also for marriages. For these loans, they have often to pay as much as 150 per cent. per annum. The middlemen are not often in debt, but the actual fish catchers are almost invariably indebted either to the middlemen or to the Mahajans." (Ibid, p. 40.)

"Mr. K. C. De concluding his report makes some pertinent remarks on improving the conditions of fishermen. He says their work is arduous and sometimes dangerous and their profits are largely swallowed up by the middlemen and proprietors of fisheries. It appears to him that the only way to secure that they should reap the full benefit of their labour is to teach them co-operation." (Ibid, p. 77.)

"As an illustration of the exactions which are otherwise levied from fishermen it may be mentioned that on an enquiry made a few years ago into some of the river fisheries in Bengal it was found that in a particular fishery, out of the total catches value at Rs. 80,000, Rs. 1,000 went to the landlord, Rs. 20,000 to the actual fishermen and the remainder to the middlemen. This is a fair index of what is happening in other fisheries. The middlemen, who fatten at the expense of the fishermen, take good care that the latter have no resources left to improve their position and make themselves financially independent." [Annual Report on the Working of Co-operative Societies in the Presidency of Bengal (for the year 1925-26), page 18 (d), Fishermen's Societies, paragraph 87.]

"But the fishermen are proverbially backward.....and an improvement in these respects can only be brought about by continued co-operative education." [Annual Report on the Working of Co-operative Societies in the Presidency of Bengal (for the year 1926-27), page 17 (d), Fishermen's Societies, paragraph 69.]

With a view to encourage co-operation and through it saving the fishermen from the hands of middlemen and proprietors, this Bill is introduced.

Member-in-charge.

APPENDIX.

Explanation of the technical terms used in clause 7 of the Bengal Fisheries Bill, 1936.

(a) "Bhāshān" means fishermen who are allowed by the landlords to catch fish in the rivers on payment of a sum of money which is three or four times of the ordinary annual rent fixed by the landlord's nayeb or gomasta (agent) in addition to "Begār" (service without remuneration).

(b) "Begār" means service without remuneration, that landlords and their officers allow the fishermen to catch fish in the fisheries owned by them on condition of the fishermen giving to zemindars and their officers as much fish as they desire to take and carrying them, wherever they like to go, in boat without any remuneration.

(c) "Vesteli", "Paraghata" or "Gola" means that the fishermen are forced and compelled to sell their catches to the "Vestas" or farias (middlemen) appointed by the zemindars or their officers at their whimsically dictated rate, otherwise the fishermen are not allowed to catch fish in the Jalkars.

(d) "Sarkāri" means fishing for the Sarkar or landlord one day in a week in addition to payment of rent. According to this system the fishermen are divided into six batches called "Jhopa" and each of them is allowed to fish one day in a week one after another which is called "Gata Pala". On the seventh day all the batches are required to catch fish and deliver them to the landlords without getting any thing in return.

(e) "Palātākā", "Vaiska"—If any of the batch referred to in (d) are found absent on the "Sarkari" day the other batches have to compensate to the landlord in cash equal to the price of the fish that have been caught by the absent batch. This imposition is called "Palātākā". Moreover, if any one boat amongst the batches called "Jhopa" be absent on their respective "Gata Pala" days, the officers of the zemindars thus taking advantage of their absence compel other fishermen to fish in place of the absentee's boats and takes all the catches by calling it "Palātākā" which is otherwise known as "Vaiska" in a little changed way. "Vaiska" is a kind of oppression by which the zemindars arrange to fish for them with fishermen other than the fisherman of respective allotted group known as "Jhope" being absent on their respective allotted days.

(f) "Rākh" means prohibition to catch fish for six months though the fishermen pay rents to the landlord for the whole year.

(g) "Bhāg" or "Adi" means the landlord's share of fish (it may be half or more than half) realised from fishermen who are allowed to catch fish in the river during the "Rakh" referred to in (f).

(h) "Minkut" means realisation of annas two or more per rupee by the landlord from the fishermen on the price of fish caught during the "Rakh" referred to in (f).

(i) "Hāshil" means the fishermen are compelled to sell their catches to the "Izārādār" (middlemen) at their whimsically dictated rate and the "Izārādārs" (middlemen) take one anna and six pies or more per rupee as "Hashil" from the price which the robbed-of-fishermen get from them at the lowest possible rate of the then market in the fishery. This oppression by the middlemen is known as "Hāshil".

(j) "Challisha" means that the fishermen are not allowed to sell their catches to any one they wish. They are to sell them to the "Izārādār" of the fishery. The "Izārādār" when buying fish asks the "Halder" or headman of the fishermen to give "Chāllishā" which means to give three or four fish for one standard sized fish weighing twice or thrice of the weight to the standard sized fish. But in the matter of price of such making, forty fish it is not more than Rs. 10 while the fish sold may be sold at Rs. 50 or more in the very same fishery if the fishermen are allowed to sell their catches freely. Not only this but half of the price of "Chāllishā" is taken by the "Izārādārs." Thus by "Chāllishā" the fishermen are paid Rs. 5 in place of Rs. 50 or more by the "Izārādārs." This oppression is known as "Chāllishā."

(k) "Jugān" means the compulsory supply of fish without price to the landlord on his order during any ceremony occasion at his house.

(l) "Hazirar fish" means to supply fish daily to the zemindars without price and to sell fish at a very considerable reduced price to the person who would take the "Hazirar fish" to the landlord's house.

(m) "Tola" means taking of selected fish without price by the officers of landlord as khoraki (for consumption but really for selling).

(n) "Sādābhātā" means a kind of realisation according to which all the boats of fishermen are compelled to net together once every day for the benefit of the landlord.

(o) "Iswarbritti" means a compulsory contribution towards the expenses of worship of gods or goddesses at the zemindar's house.

(p) "Pārbani" means compulsory contribution for the maintenance of zemindar's officers.

(q) "Tahari" means compulsory contribution along with payment of rent as cost of collection, boat hire, maintenance of payadas, etc.

(r) "Khutāgāri" means illegal and forcible extortion of money from the fishermen who berth their boats or ply them near the haunts of fish by the side of the chars in the Padma river by the officers of the landlords of those chars.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 100L.C.—25th January, 1937.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 20 of the Bengal Legislative Council Rules, 1920, the following Bill, which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 26th November, 1936, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed hereto.

THE BENGAL CESS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1936.

A
BILL*further to amend the Cess Act, 1880.*

Preamble.	WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Cess Act, 1880, in the manner hereinafter appearing ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—	Ben. Act IX of 1880.
Short title.	1. This Act may be called the Bengal Cess (Amendment) Act, 1936.
Amendment of section 45 of Ben. Act IX of 1880.	2. In clause (a) of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 45 of the Cess Act, 1880, after the words "due date," the following words be inserted :— "Or within thirty days from the date on which it becomes due to the Collector."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The amended section 45 (1) (a) provides that if the instalments of cess is paid in full on or before the "due date" a rebate of 5 per cent. is granted.

According to sub-section (2) of the said amended section 45 (1) (a) of the Cess Act, a period of 30 days' grace has been allowed.

Under section 53 of the Bengal Tenancy Act the rent payable by "the tenants shall be paid in four equal instalments falling due on the last day of each quarter of the agricultural year".

Under Rules 110 to 112 of the Bengal Cess Manual, 1927 (pages 97 to 98), the latest dates of payment for revenue-paying estates are on the 28th June, 28th September, 12th January and 28th March, whereas under section 42 (3) of the Cess Act, the latest date for the payment of cess "of a rent-paying tenure or of a cultivating raiyat will be in instalments as provided under section 53 of the Bengal Tenancy Act as referred to above and will be in proportion of the instalment of rent payable in respect of tenure or holding." Thus the latest dates for the payment of cess for a tenure-holder are on the 14th July, 14th October, 14th January and 14th April corresponding to 30th Ashar, 30th Aswin, 30th Poush and 30th Chaitra, that is 10 days behind the dates for the payment of cess by landlords.

Thus if a tenant pays punctually within his "due date" he is allowed a rebate of 5 per cent. But if a landlord remits the cess after collecting the cess from his tenants along with his own share of cess, he will not be allowed to any rebate, as his "due date" is over by 16 days before tenant's "due date." This anomaly was not cleared up in the section at the time of the passing of the Bill. On the other hand, a period of grace has always been included within the meaning of the words "due date," for example, in the case of a Hundi and in other business transactions. The object of this Bill is to do away with this difficulty without interfering with the rights and privileges of tenure-holders or other classes of tenants. If this Bill be passed the "due date" of tenure-holders will remain unaltered and will remain as it is, whereas the landlords will get about 14 days' time for payment of cess to the Collectorate after realising their dues from their tenants.

The following Act of the Indian Legislature received the assent of the Governor General on the 4th March, 1937, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. VI of 1937.

An Act to make certain further provisions respecting the law of arbitration in British India.

WHEREAS India was a State signatory to the Protocol on Arbitration Clauses set forth in the First Schedule, and to the Convention on the Execution of Foreign Arbitral Awards set forth in the Second Schedule, subject in each case to a reservation of the right to limit its obligations in respect thereof to contracts which are considered as commercial under the law in force in British India ;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient, for the purpose of giving effect to the said Protocol and of enabling the said Convention to become operative in British India, to make certain further provisions respecting the law of arbitration ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :

Short title, extent and operation.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Arbitration (Protocol and Convention) Act, 1937.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Southal Parganas.

(3) The provisions of this Act, except this section, shall have effect only from such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint in this behalf, and the Governor General in Council may appoint different dates for the coming into effect of different provisions of the Act.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act "foreign award" means an award on differences relating to matters considered as commercial under the law in force in British India, made after the 28th day of July, 1924. —

(a) in pursuance of an agreement for arbitration to which the Protocol set forth in the First Schedule applies, and

(b) between persons of whom one is subject to the jurisdiction of some one of such Powers as the Governor General in Council, being satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made, may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare to be parties to the Convention set forth in the Second Schedule, and of whom the other is subject to the jurisdiction of some other of the Powers aforesaid, and

(c) in one of such territories as the Governor General in Council, being satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made, may, by like notification, declare to be territories to which the said Convention applies, and for the purposes of this Act an award shall not be deemed to be final if any proceedings for the purpose of contesting the validity of the award are pending in the country in which it was made.

Stay of proceedings in respect of matters to be referred to arbitration.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Arbitration Act, 1899, or in the Code of Civil Procedure, IX of 1899, 1908, if any party to a submission made in pursuance of an agreement to which the Protocol set forth in the First Schedule as modified by the reservation subject to which V of 1908.

it was signed by India applies, or any person claiming through or under him, commences any legal proceedings in any Court against any other party to the submission or any person claiming through or under him in respect of any matter agreed to be referred, any party to such legal proceedings may, at any time after appearance and before filing a written statement or taking any other steps in the proceedings, apply to the Court to stay the proceedings; and the Court unless satisfied that the agreement or arbitration has become inoperative or cannot proceed, or that there is not in fact any dispute between the parties with regard to the matter agreed to be referred, shall make an order staying the proceedings.

awards.

4. (1) A foreign award shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be enforceable in British India as if it were an award made on a matter referred to arbitration in British India.

(2) Any foreign award which would be enforceable under this Act shall be treated as binding for all purposes on the persons as between whom it was made, and may accordingly be relied on by any of those persons by way of defence set off or otherwise in any legal proceedings in British India, and any references in this Act to enforcing a foreign award shall be construed as including references to relying on an award.

Filing of foreign award
in Court.

5. (1) Any person interested in a foreign award may apply to any Court having jurisdiction over the subject-matter of the award that the award be filed in Court.

(2) The application shall be in writing and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants.

(3) The Court shall direct notice to be given to the parties to the arbitration, other than the applicant, requiring them to show cause, within a time specified, why the award should not be filed.

Enforcement of foreign award.

6. (1) Where the Court is satisfied that the foreign award is enforceable under this Act, the Court shall order the award to be filed and shall proceed to pronounce judgment according to the award.

(2) Upon the judgment so pronounced a decree shall follow, and no appeal shall lie from such decree except in so far as the decree is in excess of or not in accordance with the award.

Conditions for enforcement
awards.

7. (1) In order that a foreign award may be enforceable under this Act it must have—

- (a) been made in pursuance of an agreement for arbitration which was valid under the law by which it was governed.
- (b) been made by the tribunal provided for in the agreement or constituted in manner agreed upon by the parties,
- (c) been made in conformity with the law governing the arbitration procedure,
- (d) become final in the country in which it was made,
- (e) been in respect of a matter which may lawfully be referred to arbitration under the law of British India, and the enforcement thereof must not be contrary to the public policy or the law of British India.

(2) A foreign award shall not be enforceable under this Act if the Court dealing with the case is satisfied that—

- (a) the award has been annulled in the country in which it was made, or
- (b) the party against whom it is sought to enforce the award was not given notice of the arbitration proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to present his case, or was under some legal incapacity and was not properly represented, or
- (c) the award does not deal with all the questions referred or contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the agreement for arbitration :

Provided that if the award does not deal with all questions referred the Court may, if it thinks fit, either postpone the enforcement of the award or order its enforcement subject to the giving of such security by the person seeking to enforce it as the Court may think fit

(3) If a party seeking to resist the enforcement of a foreign award proves that there is any ground other than the non-existence of the conditions specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1), or the existence of the conditions specified in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (2), entitling him to contest the validity of the award, the Court may, if it thinks fit, either refuse to enforce the award or adjourn the hearing until after the expiration of such period as appears to the Court to be reasonably sufficient to enable that party to take the necessary steps to have the award annulled by the competent tribunal

Evidence.

8. (1) The party seeking to enforce a foreign award must produce—

- (a) the original award or a copy thereof duly authenticated in manner required by the law of the country in which it was made ;
- (b) evidence proving that the award has become final, and
- (c) such evidence as may be necessary to prove that the award is a foreign award and that the conditions mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 7 are satisfied.

(2) Where any document requiring to be produced under sub-section (1) is in a foreign language, the party seeking to enforce the award shall produce a translation into English certified as correct by a diplomatic or consular agent of the country to which that party belongs or certified as correct in such other manner as may be sufficient according to the law in force in British India.

Saving.

9. Nothing in this Act shall—

- (a) prejudice any rights which any person would have had of enforcing in British India any award or of availing himself in British India of any award if this Act had not been passed, or
- (b) apply to any award made on an arbitration agreement governed by the law of British India.

Rule-making powers of the High Court.

10. The High Court may make rules consistent with this Act as to—

- (b) the evidence which must be furnished by a party seeking to enforce a foreign award under this Act ; and
- (c) generally, all proceedings in Court under this Act.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

PROTOCOL ON ARBITRATION CLAUSES.

The undersigned, being duly authorised, declare that they accept, on behalf of the countries which they represent, the following provisions :

1. Each of the Contracting States recognises the validity of an agreement whether relating to existing or future differences between parties subject respectively to the jurisdiction of different Contracting States by which the parties to a contract agree to submit to arbitration all or any differences that may arise in connection with such contract relating to commercial matters or to any other matter capable of settlement by arbitration, whether or not the arbitration is to take place in a country to whose jurisdiction none of the parties is subject.

Each Contracting State reserves the right to limit the obligation mentioned above to contracts which are considered as commercial under its national law. Any Contracting State which avails itself of this right will notify the Secretary-General of the League of Nations in order that the other Contracting States may be so informed.

2. The arbitral procedure, including the constitution of the Arbitral Tribunal, shall be governed by the will of the parties and by the law of the country in whose territory the arbitration takes place.

The Contracting States agree to facilitate all steps in the procedure which require to be taken in their own territories in accordance with the provisions of their law governing arbitral procedure applicable to existing differences.

3. Each Contracting State undertakes to ensure the execution by its authorities and in accordance with the provisions of its national laws of arbitral awards made in its own territory under the preceding articles.

4. The Tribunals of the Contracting Parties, on being seized of a dispute regarding a contract made between persons to whom Article 1 applies and including an Arbitration Agreement whether referring to present or future differences which is valid in virtue of the said article and capable of being carried into effect, shall refer the parties on the application of either of them to the decision of the Arbitrators.

Such reference shall not prejudice the competence of the judicial tribunals in case the agreement or the arbitration cannot proceed or becomes inoperative.

5. The present Protocol, which shall remain open for signature by all States, shall be ratified. The ratification shall be deposited as soon as possible with the Secretary-General of the League of Nations, who shall notify such deposit to all the Signatory States.

6. The present Protocol will come into force as soon as two ratifications have been deposited. Thereafter it will take effect, in the case of each Contracting State, one month after the notification by the Secretary-General of the deposit of its ratification.

7. The present Protocol may be denounced by any Contracting State on giving one year's notice. Denunciation shall be effected by a notification addressed to the Secretary-General of the League, who will immediately transmit copies of such notification to all the other Signatory States and inform them of the date on which it was received. The denunciation shall take effect one year after the date on which it was notified to the Secretary-General, and shall operate only in respect of the notifying State.

8. The Contracting States may declare that their acceptance of the present Protocol does not include any or all of the undermentioned territories : that is to say, their colonies, overseas possessions or territories, protectorates or the territories over which they exercise a mandate.

The said States may subsequently adhere separately on behalf of any territory thus excluded. The Secretary-General of the League of Nations shall be informed as soon as possible of such adhesions. He shall notify such adhesions to all Signatory States. They will take effect one month after the notification by the Secretary-General to all Signatory States.

The Contracting States may also denounce the Protocol separately on behalf of any of the territories referred to above. Article 7 applies to such denunciation.

THE SECOND SCHEDULE.

Convention on the Execution of Foreign Arbitral Awards.

Article 1. In the territories of any High Contracting Party to which the present Convention applies, an arbitral award made in pursuance of an agreement, whether relating to existing or future differences (hereinafter called "a submission to arbitration") covered by the Protocol on Arbitration Clauses opened at Geneva on September 24th 1923, shall be recognised as binding and shall be enforced in accordance with the rules of the procedure of the territory where the award is relied upon, provided that the said award has been made in a territory of one of the High Contracting Parties to which the present Convention applies and between persons who are subject to the jurisdiction of one of the High Contracting Parties.

To obtain such recognition or enforcement, it shall, further, be necessary:

- (a) That the award has been made in pursuance of a submission to arbitration which is valid under the law applicable thereto
- (b) That the subject-matter of the award is capable of settlement by arbitration under the law of the country in which the award is sought to be relied upon:
- (c) That the award has been made by the Arbitral Tribunal provided for in the submission to arbitration or constituted in the manner agreed upon by the parties and in conformity with the law governing the arbitration procedure
- (d) That the award has become final in the country in which it has been made in the sense that it will not be considered as such if it is open to opposition, appel or pourvoi en cassation (in the countries where such forms of procedure exist) or if it is proved that any proceedings for the purpose of contesting the validity of the award are pending.
- (e) That the recognition or enforcement of the award is not contrary to the public policy or to the principles of the law of the country in which it is sought to be relied upon.

Article 2.—Even if the conditions laid down in Article 1 hereof are fulfilled, recognition and enforcement of the award shall be refused if the Court is satisfied:

- (a) That the award has been annulled in the country in which it was made;
- (b) That the party against whom it is sought to use the award was not given notice of the arbitration proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to present his case; or that, being under a legal incapacity, he was not properly represented.
- (c) That the award does not deal with the differences contemplated by or falling within the terms of the submission to arbitration or that it contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the submission to arbitration.

If the award has not covered all the questions submitted to the arbitral tribunal, the competent authority of the country where recognition or enforcement of the award is sought can, if it thinks fit, postpone such recognition or enforcement or grant it subject to such guarantee as that authority may decide.

Article 3.—If the party against whom the award has been made proves that, under the law governing the arbitration procedure, there is a ground, other than the grounds referred to in Article 1 (a) and (c), and Article 2(b) and (c), entitling him to contest the validity of the award in a Court of Law, the Court may, if it thinks fit, either refuse recognition or enforcement of the award or adjourn the consideration thereof, giving such party a reasonable time within which to have the award annulled by the competent tribunal.

Article 4.—The party relying upon an award or claiming its enforcement must supply, in particular ;

- (1) The original award or a copy thereof duly authenticated, according to the requirements of the law of the country in which it was made ;
- (2) Documentary or other evidence to prove that the award has become final, in the sense defined in Article 1 (d), in the country in which it was made ;
- (3) When necessary, documentary or other evidence to prove that the conditions laid down in Article 1, paragraph 1 and paragraph 2 (a) and (c), have been fulfilled.

A translation of the award and of the other documents mentioned in this Article into the official language of the country where the award is sought to be relied upon may be demanded. Such translations must be certified correct by a diplomatic or consular agent of the country to which the party who seeks to rely upon the award belongs or by a sworn translator of the country where the award is sought to be relied upon.

Article 5.—The provisions of the above Articles shall not deprive any interested party of the right of availing himself of an arbitral award in the manner and to the extent allowed by the law or the treaties of the country where such award is sought to be relied upon.

Article 6.—The present Convention applies only to arbitral awards made after the coming into force of the Protocol on Arbitration Clauses, opened at Geneva on September 24th, 1923.

Article 7. The present Convention, which will remain open to the signature of all the signatories of the Protocol of 1923 on Arbitration Clauses, shall be ratified.

It may be ratified only on behalf of those Members of the League of Nations and non-Member States on whose behalf the Protocol of 1923 shall have been ratified.

Ratifications shall be deposited as soon as possible with the Secretary-General of the League of Nations, who will notify such deposit to all the signatories.

Article 8. The present Convention shall come into force three months after it shall have been ratified on behalf of two High Contracting Parties. Thereafter, it shall take effect, in the case of each High Contracting Party, three months after the deposit of the ratification on its behalf with the Secretary-General of the League of Nations. *

Article 9. The present Convention may be denounced on behalf of any Member of the League or non-Member State. Denunciation shall be notified in writing to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations, who will immediately send a copy thereof certified to be in conformity with the notifications, to all the other Contracting Parties, at the same time informing them of the date on which he received it.

The denunciation shall come into force only in respect of the High Contracting Party which shall have notified it and one year after such notification shall have reached the Secretary-General of the League of Nations.

The denunciation of the Protocol on Arbitration Clauses shall entail, ipso facto, the denunciation of the present Convention.

Article 10. The present Convention does not apply to the Colonies, Protectorates or territories under suzerainty or mandate of any High Contracting Party unless they are specially mentioned.

The application of this Convention to one or more of such Colonies, Protectorates or territories to which the Protocol on Arbitration Clauses opened at Geneva on September 24th, 1923, applies, can be effected at any time by means of a declaration addressed to the Secretary-General of the League of Nations by one of the High Contracting Parties.

Such declaration shall take effect three months after the deposit thereof.

The High Contracting Parties can at any time denounce the Convention for all or any of the Colonies, Protectorates or territories referred to above. Article 9 hereof applies to such denunciation.

Article 11. A certified copy of the present Convention shall be transmitted by the Secretary-General of the League of Nations to every Member of the League of Nations and to every non-Member State which signs the same.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 25th January 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 1 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Boilers Act, 1923, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Boilers Act, 1923, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Boilers (Amendment) Act, 1937.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

Application of Act.

2. The Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), shall, in its application to British India, including British Baluchistan and the Southal Parganas but excluding Burma, be amended in the manner hereinafter provided.

Amendment of section 2, Act V of 1923.

3. In section 2 of the said Act, after clause (a) the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(aa) ‘Board’ means the Central Boilers Board constituted under section 27A;”.

Insertion of new section 27A in Act V of 1923.

4. After section 27 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“27A. (1) A Board to be called the Central Boilers Board shall be constituted to exercise the powers conferred by section 28.

Central Boilers Board.

(2) The Board shall consist of fourteen members, namely:—

(a) a chairman to be nominated by the Governor-General in Council;

(b) one member to be nominated by each of the Local Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the United Provinces, the Punjab, Bihar, the Central Provinces, Assam, the North-West Frontier Province, Sind, Orissa and Delhi; and

(c) one member to be nominated by the Chief Commissioner of Railways.

(3) Any vacancy occurring in the Board shall be filled as soon as may be by a nomination made by the authority by whom the member vacating office was nominated.

(4) The Board shall have full power to regulate by by-laws or otherwise its own procedure and the conduct of all business to be transacted by the Board.

(5) The powers of the Board may be exercised notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board."

Amendment of section 28, Act V
of 1923.

5. In section 28 of the said Act,—

(a) for the words "Governor General in Council", in both places where they occur, the word "Board" shall be substituted; and

(b) after clause (a) the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(aa) for prescribing the circumstances in which, the extent to which, and the condition subject to which variation from the standard conditions laid down under clause (a) may be permitted;".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Government of India Act, 1935, assigns the subject of "Boilers" to the concurrent field. While the Central Legislature will, after 1st April, be able to legislate in that field, the power of making regulations, which is an exercise of executive authority, will vest in the Provincial Government except in so far as the regulations relate to railways, in which case the Central Government will be responsible. It is most undesirable from the point of view both of industry and of administration that there should be a series of separate codes; but the frequent modifications in the code necessitated by the constant developments in boiler practice cannot, without great inconvenience, be achieved by continual legislation. The Bill accordingly provides for the constitution of a Central Board which will have the authority to make regulations which is at present exercised by the Government of India. The powers at present vested in Provincial Governments will not be affected. The proposal was discussed at the Industries Conference held in Lucknow in December 1936 and secured general approval.

The Bill also provides an amendment to section 28 which will make it possible to permit variations in special circumstances from such standard conditions as may be prescribed for the construction of boilers.

1921	II	The Bombay Short Titles Act, 1921.	So much of the Schedule as relates to the Bombay Land-customs Act, 1857.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In view of the existing definition of 'foreign territory' the Indian Land Customs Act, 1924, does not apply to the frontiers of Indian States. It has therefore been necessary to utilise the provisions of the Bombay Land Customs Act, 1857, in connection with the land customs lines which have been established on the frontiers of Kathiawar and Cutch. Experience has shown that the Bombay Act is seriously defective in several respects, and it is therefore proposed that the all-India Act should now be made applicable to all frontiers.

2. It is also proposed that sections 88 and 168 of the Sea Customs Act should now be included in the list of sections which apply to the land frontiers. Section 88 gives the customs authorities power to dispose of unclaimed goods and section 168 gives power to confiscate vehicles used for the conveyance of smuggled goods. It has been found that these powers are required by the land customs officers.

3. The proposed amendments will not in any way prejudice the treaty rights of the States and do not imply any intention of extending or increasing the existing land customs lines. Their purpose is merely to secure uniformity in customs administration throughout India.

39. (1) The Court may order the winding up in accordance with the Indian Companies Act, 1913, of any insurance company and the provisions of that Act shall, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, apply accordingly.

(2) In addition to the grounds on which such an order may be based, the Court may order the winding up of an insurance company-

 - (iii) that it appears from the returns furnished under the provisions of this Act or from the results of any investigation made thereunder that the company is insolvent, or
 - (iv) that the continuance of the company is prejudicial to the interests of the policyholders.

Voluntary winding up.

40. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Companies Act, 1913, an insurance company shall not be wound up voluntarily except for the purpose of effecting an amalgamation or a re-construction of the company, or on the ground that by reason of its liabilities it cannot continue its business. VII of 1913.

Valuation of liabilities.

41. (1) In the winding up of an insurance company or in the insolvency of any other insurer the value of the assets and the liabilities of the insurer shall be ascertained in such manner and upon such basis as the liquidator or receiver in insolvency thinks fit, subject, so far as applicable, to the rule contained in the Sixth Schedule and to any directions which may be given by the Court.

(2) For the purposes of any reduction by the Court of the amount of the contracts of any insurance company the value of the assets and liabilities of the company and all claims in respect of policies issued by it shall be ascertained in such manner and upon such basis as the Court thinks proper having regard to the rules aforesaid.

(3) The rule in the Sixth Schedule shall be of the same force and may be repealed, altered or amended as if it were a rule made in pursuance of section 246 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, and rules may be made under that section for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act with respect to the winding up of insurance companies. VII of 1913.

Application of surplus assets of life insurance fund in liquidation or insolvency.

42. (1) In the winding up of an insurance company or in the insolvency of any other insurer the value of the assets and the liabilities of the insurer in respect of life insurance business shall be ascertained separately from the value of any other assets or any other liabilities of the insurer and no such assets shall be applied to the discharge of any liabilities other than those in respect of life insurance business except in so far as those assets exceed the liabilities in respect of life insurance business.

(2) In the winding up of an insurance company carrying on the business of life insurance or in the insolvency of any other insurer carrying on such business where any proportion of the profits of the insurer was before the commencement of the winding up or insolvency allocated to policy-holders, if, when the assets and liabilities of the insurer have been ascertained, there is found to be a surplus of assets over liabilities (hereinafter referred to as a prima facie surplus) there shall be added to the liabilities of the insurer in respect of the life insurance business an amount equal to such proportion of the prima facie surplus as is equivalent to such proportion of the profits allocated to shareholders and policy-holders as was allocated to policy-holders during the ten years immediately preceding the commencement of the winding up and the assets of the insurer shall be deemed to exceed his liabilities only in so far as those assets exceed those liabilities after such addition:

Provided that, if in any case there has been no such allocation or if it appears to the Court that by reason of special circumstances it would be inequitable that the amount to be added to the liabilities of the insurer in respect of the life insurance business should be an amount equal to such proportion as aforesaid, the amount to be so added shall be such amount as the Court may direct.

Winding up of secondary companies.

(2) The commencement of the winding up of the principal company shall, save as otherwise ordered by the Court, be the commencement of the winding up of the secondary company.

(3) In adjusting the rights and liabilities of the members of the several companies among themselves the Court shall have regard to the constitution of the companies and to the arrangements entered into between the companies in the same manner as the Court has regard to the rights and liabilities of different classes of contributories in the case of the winding up of a single company or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

(4) Where any company alleged to be secondary is not in process of being wound up at the same time as the principal company to which it is alleged to be secondary, the Court shall not direct the secondary company to be wound up, unless, after hearing all objections (if any) that may be urged by or on behalf of the company against its being wound up, the Court is of opinion that the company is secondary to the principal company and that the winding up of the company in conjunction with the principal company is just and equitable.

(5) An application may be made in relation to the winding up of any secondary company in conjunction with the principal company by any creditor of, or person interested in, the principal or secondary company.

(6) Where a company stands in the relation of a principal company to one insurance company and in the relation of a secondary company to some other insurance company or where there are several insurance companies standing in the relation of secondary companies to one principal company, the Court may deal with any number of such companies together or in separate groups as it thinks most expedient upon the principles laid down in this section.

(2) Any scheme prepared under this section shall provide for the allocation and distribution of the assets and liabilities of the company between any classes of business affected (including the allocation of any surplus assets which may arise on the proposed winding up), for any future rights of every class of policy-holders in respect of their policies and for the manner of winding up any of the affairs of the company which are proposed to be wound up and may contain provisions for altering the memorandum of the company with respect to its objects and such further provisions as may be expedient for giving effect to the scheme.

(3) The provisions of this Act relating to the valuation of liabilities of insurers in liquidation and insolvency and to the application of surplus assets of the life insurance fund in liquidation or insolvency shall apply to the winding up of any part of the affairs of a company in accordance with the scheme under this section in like manner as they apply in the winding up of an insurance company, and any scheme under this section may apply with the necessary modifications any of the provisions of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, relating to the winding up of companies. Regulations and Form for the preparation of Balance-sheet.

PART I.

REGULATIONS.

1. The balance-sheet required to be prepared in respect of every class of business carried on by an insurer is, in the form in which it is set out in Part II of this Schedule (Form A), appropriate to a case where the insurer maintains a separate fund in respect of life insurance business.

2. The balance-sheet of any class of business may be prepared as a separate document instead of being incorporated by the addition of columns and headings in the general balance-sheet, but the totals of each such separate balance-sheet (showing the total assets of the class of business, the balance at the credit of the life insurance fund or other separate fund or account, the amount of shareholders' undivided profits, and outstanding liabilities) must in any case be incorporated in the general balance-sheet.

3. If any combined balance-sheet is for any purpose issued by an insurer, it shall be in accordance with the Form set out in this Schedule, and there shall not be included among the assets shown in any such combined balance-sheet any amount in respect of any holding in or advance to any insurer whose assets and liabilities have been incorporated therein. Every combined balance-sheet must show clearly on the face thereof that it is a combined balance-sheet and must set out fully the name of every insurer whose assets and liabilities have been incorporated therein; if the assets and liabilities of any person not being an insurer are included in a combined balance-sheet the fact must be stated thereon.

4. Where any guarantee has been given by an insurer (otherwise than in the ordinary course of re-insurance business) in respect of the policies of any other insurer, the balance-sheet of the insurer by whom the guarantee was given must show clearly the name of every insurer whose policies have been so guaranteed and the extent of the guarantee :

Provided that this regulation shall not apply where a combined balance-sheet is issued incorporating the assets and liabilities of the insurer whose policies are guaranteed.

5. Where any part of the assets of an insurer is deposited in any place outside British India as security for the owners of policies issued in that place, the balance-sheet shall state that part of the assets has been so deposited, and, if any such part forms part of the life insurance fund, shall show the amount thereof and the place where it is deposited. Where any combined balance-sheet is issued by an insurer for any purpose, the information required by this regulation shall be shown in the aggregate in respect of all the insurers whose assets and liabilities have been incorporated in the balance-sheet.

6. If the value as shown in the balance-sheet of the Investments in Stocks and Shares is in the aggregate greater than the market value thereof (after deduction of accrued interest included in market prices in those cases where accrued interest is included elsewhere in the balance-sheet), then such market value must be shown against the value shown by the balance-sheet, so stated as to make it appear what part thereof has been ascertained from published market quotations.

7. Every balance-sheet shall contain the following certificates, namely:—

(a) a certificate signed by the same persons as are required by this Act to sign the balance-sheet explaining how the values as shown in the balance-sheet of the Investments in Stocks and Shares have been arrived at, and how the market value thereof has been ascertained for the purpose of comparison with the values so shown;

(b) a certificate signed by the same persons as are required by this Act to sign the balance-sheet and signed also, so far as respects the value of any items shown in the balance-sheet under the heading of "Reversions and Life Interests," by an actuary, certifying that the values of all the assets have been reviewed as at the date of the balance-sheet, and that in their belief the assets set forth in the balance-sheet are shown in the aggregate at amounts not exceeding their realisable or market value under the several headings—"Loans," "Reversions and Life Interests," "Investments," "Agents Balances and Outstanding Premiums," "Interest Dividends and Rents outstanding," "Interest Dividend and Rents accruing but not due," "Amounts due from Other Persons or Bodies carrying on Insurance Business," "Sundry Debtors," "Bills Receivable," "Cash" and the several items specified under "Other Accounts:"

Provided that if the persons signing the certificate are unable to certify that the assets set forth in the balance-sheet are so shown as aforesaid, a full explanation of the bases upon which the values shown in the balance-sheet have been assessed shall be given in the certificate;

(c) a certificate signed by the same persons as are required by this Act to sign the balance-sheet and by the auditor certifying that no parts of the assets of the life insurance fund has been directly or indirectly applied in contravention of the provisions of this Act relating to the application and investment of life insurance funds; and

(d) certificates signed by the auditor (which shall be in addition to any other certificate or report which he is required by law to give with respect to the balance-sheet) certifying—

(i) that he has verified the cash balances and the securities relating to the insurer's loans, reversions and life interests, and investments;

(ii) to what extent, if any, he has verified the investments and transactions relating to any trusts undertaken by the insurer as trustee; and

(iii) in the case of a combined balance-sheet that he has audited the balance-sheet and accounts of every insurer whose assets and liabilities are incorporated therein, or that any such balance-sheet and accounts which have not been audited by him have been certified by independent auditors, the said certificate shall contain a reference to such reservations, if any, as may have been made by any auditor upon any report or certificate given by him with respect to the balance-sheet and accounts of any insurer whose assets and liabilities are incorporated in the combined balance-sheet.

8. If the values shown in the balance-sheet in respect of "Holdings in Controlled Companies" or "House Property (a) in India (b) out of India" have been increased since the last previous balance-sheet, the certificate required by paragraph (b) of the last foregoing regulation shall state the amount of every increase not solely due to the cost of subsequent additions or, as respects holdings in controlled companies, to increased profits, and shall contain an explanation of the reason therefor.

9. For the purposes of this Schedule the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, namely:—

- (a) "combined balance-sheet" includes any combined statement made by an insurer of assets and liabilities in the form of a balance-sheet which includes the assets and liabilities of any other insurer;
- (b) "controlled company" means any company over the policy or management of which the insurer has power directly or indirectly to exercise decisive influence; and

2. Where any table of mortality or sickness used in a valuation is not a published table, then, for the purpose of complying with paragraph 3 of Part II of this Schedule, specimen policy values must be given at the rate of interest employed in the valuation in respect of whole life insurance policies effected at the respective ages of 20, 30, 40 and 50, and having been in force respectively for five years, ten years and upwards at intervals of ten years; and similar specimen policy values must be given in respect of endowment insurance policies effected at the respective ages of 20, 30 and 40 for endowment terms of twenty and thirty years:

Provided that, where the specimen policy values required by this regulation to be given are the same as those given in any abstract prepared under Part II of this Schedule previously submitted by the insurer to the Superintendent of Insurance, it shall be sufficient in any abstract subsequently submitted to refer to the specimens so given in such manner as to enable the required information to be ascertained therefrom by the Superintendent of Insurance.

3. In showing the proportion which that part of the annual premiums reserved as a provision for future expenses and profits bears to the total of the annual premiums, in accordance with the requirement of paragraph 4 of Part II of this Schedule, no credit is to be taken for any adjustments made in order to secure that no policy is treated as an asset.

4. (1) The average rate of interest yielded in any year by the assets constituting a life insurance fund shall, for the purposes of paragraph 5 of Part II of this Schedule, be calculated by dividing the interest of the year by the mean fund of the year; and for the purposes of any such calculation the interest of the year shall be taken to be the whole of the interest credited to the life insurance fund during the year after deduction of income-tax (any refund of income-tax made during the year being taken into account), and the mean fund of the year shall be ascertained by adding a sum equal to one-half of the amount of the life insurance fund at the beginning of the year to a sum equal to one-half of that fund at the end of the year, and deducting from the aggregate of those two sums an amount equal to one-half of the interest of the year.

(2) For the purposes of the calculation aforesaid either—

- (a) all profits and income arising during the year from sums invested in reversions shall be included in the interest credited to the life insurance fund during the year; or
- (b) such portion of the life insurance fund as is invested in the purchase of reversions, and the profits and income arising therefrom, shall be excluded from the calculation; but in that case a statement must be added to the information required under the said paragraph 5, showing in respect of the portion of the fund so excluded as aforesaid, the average rate of annual profit and income for which credit has been taken during the five years last preceding the valuation date, and explaining the manner in which the said average rate has been calculated.

(3) The information given in accordance with the requirements of the said paragraph 5, shall show clearly by which of the methods hereinbefore in this regulation mentioned the sums invested in reversions and the profits and income arising therefrom have been dealt with.

5. Every abstract prepared in accordance with the requirements of Part II of this Schedule shall be signed by an actuary and shall contain a certificate by him to the effect that he has satisfied himself as to the accuracy of the valuations made for the purposes thereof and of the valuation data:

THE SIXTH SCHEDULE.

(See section 40.)

Rule as to the valuation of the Liabilities of an Insurer in Insolvency or Liquidation.

The liabilities of an insurer in respect of current contracts effected in the course of life insurance business including annuity business, shall, subject to any directions which may be given by the Court, be calculated upon the basis of the rate of interest and rates of mortality and sickness upon which in the opinion of the liquidator or official assignee or receiver the like calculation could properly be based if the obligations under the contracts were to be fulfilled as and when they became due, taking into account the premiums which would be received under the contracts and such sum as, in the opinion of the liquidator or official assignee or receiver, is the lowest that could properly be assumed in respect of the office expenses and other charges which would be incurred in respect of the contracts.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The law relating to insurance in British India is contained in Act V of 1912, which regulates Provident Insurance Societies, Act VI of 1912, which regulates Life Assurance Companies, and Act XX of 1928, which amended the latter in certain respects but was primarily aimed at providing for the collection of statistical information in respect of insurance business other than life insurance business carried on in India by external companies.

2. The marked increase in the volume of life insurance business, and the development of other forms of insurance business in British India since 1912 soon suggested that more comprehensive legislation was needed. A Bill was prepared in 1925 to extend to other classes of insurance business the supervision already exercised over life insurance. The appointment in England almost simultaneously of a departmental committee presided over by Mr. A. C. Clauson, K.C., to report on the amendment of the Assurance Companies Act, 1909, on which the Indian Act VI of 1912 had been largely based, decided the Government of India to postpone that Bill, and await the legislation resulting from the Clauson enquiry. The enquiry, however, though completed in 1927, was not immediately followed by, and has not yet resulted in legislation in England, although the report of the committee contained a draft Bill embodying the recommendations of the committee for the re-enactment of the 1909 Act with extensive modifications. In the meantime Act XX of 1928 was passed by the Indian Legislature, and it was hoped that the information collected through it would be of value when the time came to consider the problems affecting Indian insurance.

3. In 1935 the Government decided to proceed with the reform of insurance law without waiting for the enactment of legislation in England. Mr. S. C. Sen was placed on special duty to examine the material which had been collected concerning the amendment of company law in general, and insurance law in particular. In 1936 the Indian Companies (Amendment) Act, 1936, was passed. The project of revising the law of insurance was at once taken up. A small advisory committee of experts representing various interests was assembled in the autumn of 1936 to consider in detail the various recommendations contained in Mr. Sen's report. This Bill embodies the proposals which Government has decided to submit to the Legislature after consideration of Mr. Sen's recommendations and the opinions of the advisory committee.

4. The draft Bill includes in one enactment the subjects dealt with by the two separate Acts of 1912, but relegates the provisions relating to Provident Insurance Societies to a separate Part.

It provides inter alia for the following matters. It increases the supervision exercised over all concerns transacting insurance business of whatever kind in British India, whether these are indigenous concerns, or external companies represented in India by branches or agencies, and treats agents acting for Lloyds' underwriters on the same basis as such branches or agencies. Registration formerly unnecessary except for Provident Insurance Societies is proposed for general application, and the principle of exacting deposits, hitherto applied only to indigenous companies transacting life insurance business, has been similarly extended. The amount of the deposit has been increased with the object of more effectively discouraging the formation of companies inadequately financed, and where the business of life insurance is to be carried on a minimum net sum of Rs. 50,000 is required as working capital. Provision is made for full disclosure of the information required to ensure sound principles of finance and management. Powers to enforce punctual submission of returns and to ensure their accuracy, and additional powers of inspection of insurance companies are taken. External companies are required to keep in their principal offices in British India the accounts and other documents by which their returns concerning their business in India can be checked. Certain restrictions are imposed on the investment of the funds of insurance companies, and external concerns are required to keep a portion of their assets invested in Indian Government securities. The existing provisions of the law relating to winding up of insurance companies, and to the amalgamation and transfer of insurance business have been enlarged. Provisions have been inserted to regulate the assignment and transfer of policies of life insurance and the making of nominations. Power is given to companies to pay into Court moneys due under a policy where there is difficulty in securing a proper discharge. It is proposed to prohibit the employment of Managing Agents in future, and to bring existing Managing Agencies to an early end. In order to secure fair treatment for Indian insurance companies operating in foreign countries power is taken to subject the nationals of a foreign country to any restrictions that are imposed in that country on Indian insurance concerns operating there. Certain proposals are put forward aimed at checking the practice of rebating and the payment of excessive commission. These include provision for the licensing of insurance agents. The administration of the Act will be carried out through the Superintendent of Insurance, who will normally be the Government Actuary. To him also is assigned the supervision of Provident Insurance Societies.

5. The provisions relating to Provident Insurance Societies subject these to much more effective supervision than has hitherto been exercised. The name adopted by any such society will indicate its status. Business on the dividing principle is prohibited so that societies dependent on this class of business will disappear. A minimum initial working capital is required, and the principle of deposits is applied. The rules of a society will disclose fuller information of the working of the society. All schemes of insurance operated by a society are to be subjected to actuarial examination so that unsound schemes may be eliminated, and periodical actuarial investigation must be made into the financial condition of the society. Proper books of account must be maintained, and the accounts must be audited. Separate classes of business must be brought separately to account, and a separate fund must be maintained in connection with a particular group of contingencies. Assets are further protected by a provision requiring the investment in trust securities of a certain percentage of the total assets. Increased powers of inspection and inquiry are taken. Other features of this Part are the application to policies issued by Provident Societies of the provisions governing transfer and assignment of life insurance policies and nominations. Liquidation procedure, formerly governed by rules made by the Local Government, is now to be provided for in the Act itself.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2. Definitions.—The definition of “actuary” enables the Governor General in Council to prescribe as at present the qualifications to be possessed. The existing rules made under section 39 of Act VI of 1912 will survive by virtue of section 24, General Clauses Act, 1897.

“Auditor.”—See Mr. Sen’s report, paragraphs 131 and 286.

“Insurance company.”—This definition is inserted for the purposes of the winding up provisions, clauses 39 to 47.

“Insurer.”—This definition follows the lines of the Clauson Draft Bill so far as sub-clauses (a) (i), (ii) and (iii) are concerned, but sub-clause (a) (iii) includes subsidiary companies as defined for the purposes of the Indian Companies Act.

Sub-clause (b) is meant to make local agents for Lloyds’ underwriters liable to all the control provisions applying to other insurers. It seems necessary to exclude specifically the licensed agents referred to in clauses 33 to 36, who are “persons carrying on insurance business in British India,” and it is necessary to exclude “provident societies” which are specifically dealt with in a separate Part. The insurers defined in clauses (ii) and (iii) of sub-clause (a) are Indian insurers. Any insurers not included in these will be non-Indian insurers. The subsequent provisions of the Bill relating to registration, deposit, actuarial valuation, keeping of accounts, submission of returns, etc., are drafted to apply equally to all insurers, but in certain cases, e.g., clauses 9(7), 10, 11 and 13 as well as in clauses 48 to 50, special provisions have had to be made for non-Indian insurers. These have been distinguished from Indian insurers mostly by reference to the terms of this definition.

Of the definitions included in Act VI of 1912, the definitions of “life assurance business,” “policy of insurance on human life,” “policy-holder” and “policy” are omitted. No attempt has been made to define “fire insurance business,” “marine insurance business," "life insurance business" or "workmen's compensation insurance business" although definitions of these are in the 1925 Bill. It is not considered necessary to define these terms.

Clause 3.—This clause is intended to make registration the primary requisite, and to use the application for registration as a means of ensuring that—

- (a) the necessary deposits have been made, and
- (b) the requisite minimum working capital is available.

Sub-clause (3) supplies one means of securing reciprocal treatment in foreign countries. A further provision to this end is to be found in clause 48.

Sub-clause (4) is aimed at securing that an insurer shall not with impunity delay or fail to complete his deposits if he secures registration on making the preliminary deposit.

Clause 4.—This clause requires that there shall be a minimum working capital in the case of life insurance concerns of Rs. 50,000.

Clause 5. Deposits.—Sub-clause (1) fixes the amount of the deposit required for the four main classes of insurance business.

Sub-clauses (2) and (3) provide for payment of instalments.

Sub-clause (4) provides for utilising deposits already made under the 1912 Act.

Sub-clause (5) reproduces section 4(2) of the 1912 Act, but provides for the deduction of collecting charges about which there was some controversy under the old Act.

Sub-clause (6).—See Mr. Sen's report, paragraph 73 and clause 17 of the 1925 Bill.

Sub-clause (7) is intended to secure that depletion of deposits through their being used to meet claims shall be made good.

Clause 6.—Sub-clause (1) makes a general reservation as to deposits, saving them for meeting liabilities arising out of policies of insurance; and sub-clause (2) provides that each of the four classes of deposits is primarily liable only for liabilities attaching to policies of its own class.

Clause 7.—Act VI of 1912 made no specific provision for the return of deposits. This was however included in the 1925 Bill. This clause reproduces clause 16 of the Bill of 1925. With this clause may be compared clause 45 which reproduces clause 50 of the 1925 Bill providing for the return of deposits, when the business is being wound up.

Clause 8.—Separate assets are required to be kept only in respect of life insurance business, but separate accounts are required for each of the four main classes into which insurance business is divided.

Sub-clauses (2) and (3) reproduce sections 5 and 6 of Act VI of 1912.

Clause 9.—This is intended to require that an Indian insurer shall in respect of all business and a non-Indian insurer, including a Lloyds' agent, shall in respect of business transacted in India, prepare—

- (a) a balance-sheet;
- (b) a profit and loss account whenever he combines any two or more of the business of life, fire and marine insurance, and even if he only does the single business of miscellaneous insurance. The provision relating to miscellaneous business has been made because in the case of miscellaneous insurance, a profit and loss account is necessary to enable the gain or loss on the different sub-classes included in this class to be ascertained as this may not be able to be done from the revenue account for miscellaneous insurance; and
- (c) a revenue account for each of the four separate classes of business.

Clause 85 (2) (b) enables rules to be made defining what shall be deemed to be insurance business transacted in British India, if such definition is necessary.

Sub-clause (2) is based on paragraph 120(b) of Mr. Sen's report, page 33. Under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, companies are already required to supply this information, but there may be Indian insurers who are not subject to that Act.

Sub-clause (3) allows two years for the transition from the financial year to the calendar year as the year of account, since sub-clause (1) now makes the latter the year of account.

This clause, read with Schedules I to III, incorporates the Second, Third and Fourth Schedules of the Clauson Bill with the modifications necessary to adapt them to Indian conditions.

The effect of sub-clause (I) (d) is to secure that nearly all the details specified in section 7 (e) of Act VI of 1912 have to be supplied with the Revenue Account (See regulation 6 of Part I of the Third Schedule).

Clause 10.—Act VI of 1912 provides for the audit, in such manner as may be prescribed, of the accounts of life insurance companies and the Indian Companies Act requires companies, subject to that Act, to undergo audit.

This clause provides for the general audit of all Indian insurers and for the audit as to business transacted in British India of non-Indian insurers, requires the auditors to be persons qualified under the Indian Companies Act, and incorporates the provisions of section 145 of that Act requiring the auditors to report on the accounts audited.

Clause 11.—This follows clauses 25 and 26 of the 1925 Bill, which enlarges section 8 of Act VI of 1912, but incorporates the two Schedules referred to in clause 8(2), (3) and (4) of the Clauson Bill, with however considerable modifications to adapt them to Indian conditions.

Clause 12.—Regarding the special provision made in the proviso to sub-clause (I) for non-Indian insurers, see paragraph 285 of Mr. Sen's report, page 86.

Sub-clause (3) gives effect in a modified form to the recommendation made in paragraph 285 of Mr. Sen's report, page 86. It is drafted so as to give to foreign insurers the option of supplying copies of the balance-sheets, profit and loss accounts, etc., of their general business, instead of abstracts, if it is found more convenient by them.

Clause 13 is designed to meet the difficulty that would be experienced by external insurers operating through a branch or agency in British India in supplying the accounts referred to in clause 9 for that portion of their business which is carried on in India unless a complete severance was made from the parent concern. Shareholders' capital, for example, and the majority of the assets could not be allocated in a balance-sheet in respect of a fraction only of the insurer's whole business, and similar difficulties would arise in preparing a separate profit and loss account for a fraction of the whole business. The returns made to the Board of Trade in England or to the Governments of countries which have made adequate provision for the control of insurance, supplemented by the information contained in the special revenue accounts for business transacted in British India which are required by this clause will, it is thought, supply all the information which it is necessary to obtain.

Clause 14 reproduces section 13 of Act VI of 1912 and clause 58 of the 1925 Bill.

Clause 15 reproduces section 12 of Act VI of 1912 and clause 34 of the 1925 Bill.

Clause 16 reproduces clause 35 of the 1925 Bill but was not included in Act VI of 1912.

Clause 17 reproduces section 14 of Act VI of 1912 and clause 36 of the 1925 Bill.

Clause 18 is based on clause 30 of the 1925 Bill, but has been expanded to include the recommendations contained in paragraph 148(d), (e) and (f) of Mr. Sen's report, page 42, and the safeguard mentioned in that paragraph at the top of page 43.

Clause 19 embodies the recommendation in paragraph 136(ii) of Mr. Sen's report, page 39.

Clauses 20 and 21 reproduce clauses 37 and 38 of the Bill of 1925 and sections 29, 30 and 28 of Act VI of 1912.

Clause 22 reproduces clause 39 of the 1925 Bill.

Clause 23.—Sub-clause (I).—See paragraph 110(a) of Mr. Sen's report.

Sub-clause (2).—See paragraph 282 of Mr. Sen's report.

Sub-clause (3).—See paragraph 110(c) of Mr. Sen's report.

Sub-clause (4).—See paragraph 110(b) (2) of Mr. Sen's report and clause 9 of the 1925 Bill.

Clause 24.—This clause is intended to bring about the abolition of managing agents.

Clause 25.—See paragraph 148(g) of Mr. Sen's report, page 42.

Clause 26.—See paragraph 148 of Mr. Sen's report, page 43, and clause 21 of the Clauson Bill. No provision is however made for charging the expenses of the investigation here and in the preceding clause to the insurer.

Clause 27.—See clause 31(2) of the 1925 Bill and section 37(2) of Act VI of 1912.

Clauses 28 to 30.—See paragraph 158(a) of Mr. Sen's report and clauses 13, 14 and 25 of the Clauson Bill. The 1925 Bill has been recast to some extent in the light of the Clauson draft.

Clause 31.—See paragraph 173A of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 32.—See paragraph 194 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clauses 33 to 35.—These contain the proposals for limiting commission prohibiting rebates, and licensing insurance agents.

Clause 33.—Sub-clause (1) embodies paragraph 213(4) of Mr. Sen's report with certain modifications.

Sub-clause (2) imposes restrictions on the payment of commission.

Clause 34.—See paragraph 215 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 35.—See paragraph 213(1), (2) and (5) of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 36.—See paragraph 213(3) of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 37.—See paragraph 306 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 38.—See paragraph 205 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clauses 39 to 47.—Winding up—

Clause 39 embodies paragraph 150 of Mr. Sen's report with slight modifications.

Clause 40 is intended to safeguard the interests of policy-holders.

Clause 41.—See paragraph 153 of Mr. Sen's report. The Seventh Schedule of the Clauson Bill has had to be much simplified.

Clause 42.—This reproduces clause 17 of the Clauson Bill, sub-clause (2) of which was already in Act VI of 1912 as section 26A, with the omission of references to continuous disability business and capital redemption business, and the omission of clause (b) of the proviso.

Clause 43.—See paragraph 156 of Mr. Sen's report which was already in Act VI of 1912 as section 23.

Clause 44. See paragraph 157 of Mr. Sen's report and clause 18 of the Clauson Bill.

Clause 45 reproduces clause 50 of the 1925 Bill.

Clause 46 reproduces clause 53 of the 1925 Bill and corresponds to the rule in Part II of the Seventh Schedule of the Clauson Bill.

Clause 47.—See paragraph 155 of Mr. Sen's report and also clause 54 of the 1925 Bill. It will be noticed that while sub-clause (1) applies to all classes of insurance business, sub-clause (2) applies only to life insurance business.

Clause 48.—This clause, taken with the provisions of clause 3(3) of the Bill, supplies the means of enforcing reciprocity in the treatment of Indian Insurance Companies abroad.

Clause 49.—See paragraph 236 of Mr. Sen's report, section 19 of Act VI of 1912 and section 12 of the Indian Insurance Companies Act, 1928 (XX of 1928).

Clause 50.—This clause embodies Mr. Sen's recommendation in paragraph 285(a).

Clause 51.—See paragraph 333 of Mr. Sen's report. Contrast section 2(8) of Act V of 1912.

Clause 52.—See paragraphs 349 to 351 of Mr. Sen's report, section 3 of Act V of 1912 and clause 59 of the 1925 Bill, which latter was designed to amend section 3 of Act V.

Clause 53.—See paragraph 366 of Mr. Sen's report. The expression "provident society" has been adopted for the purposes of the Bill to describe what had previously been known as provident insurance societies.

Clause 54 reproduces section 4 of Act V of 1912.

Clause 55.—See paragraph 342 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 56.—This clause re-enacts section 6 of Act V of 1912 requiring registration; but as the Superintendent of Insurance is henceforth to be the controlling authority, section 6 of Act V of 1912 needs considerable modification. Sub-clause (1) excepts societies already registered under the old Act, but, in order to compel them to make the deposits, which are now being introduced, sub-clause (4) provides for the cancellation of registration made under that Act. Of the grounds for cancellation the two in clause (a) are those contained in section 18 of Act V of 1912, together with that set out in paragraph 368(A) (f) of Mr. Sen's report, that in clause (b) is intended to enforce the provisions of clause 58 as to deposits, and that in clause (c) is based on the fact that by clause 39(2) (b) (ii) of the Bill this is a ground for putting an insurer into liquidation.

Clause 57.—See paragraph 324 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 58.—See paragraph 320 of Mr. Sen's report.

Sub-clause (2) provides for payment of interest on the deposit to the society, for substituting other securities for those deposited, for making good depletions of deposits and for reserving deposits for the satisfaction of policy-holders' claims.

Clause 59.—This expands section 5 of Act V of 1912, as recommended in paragraph 327 of Mr. Sen's report.

Sub-clause (2) provides for bringing existing societies into line.

Clause 60.—This reproduces section 8 of Act V of 1912, as modified by paragraph 328 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 61 reproduces section 9 of Act V of 1912.

Clause 62 reproduces section 12 of Act V of 1912.

Clause 63 reproduces section 11 of Act V of 1912.

Clause 64.—See paragraph 352 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 65.—Sub-clause (1) expands section 13 of Act V of 1912 on the lines proposed in paragraph 354 of Mr. Sen's report. As the year of account is changed to the calendar year, sub-clause (3) is designed to give the societies time to change from one system to the other. In sub-clause (2) clause (b) reproduces the substances of section 15 of Act V of 1912. This is necessary to enable clause 54 to be enforced.

Clause 66.—See paragraph 357 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 67 provides for the supply to the Superintendent of Insurance of the necessary returns and for the supply of copies thereof to the members or policy-holders.

Clause 68.—See paragraph 367 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 69.—See paragraphs 353 and 358 of Mr. Sen's report. Sub-clause (1) provides all that is necessary to secure separate accounts of the various classes of business done by provident societies.

Sub-clause (2).—It is considered that, as in the case of insurers, a separate fund should be maintained for life assurance business. Of this term there is no definition in the Bill, though it was defined in Act V of 1912. The scope of the proposed separate fund is defined with reference to the contingencies specified in clause 51.

Clause 70.—See paragraph 360 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 71 reproduces section 16 of Act V of 1912.

Clause 72.—See paragraph 363 of Mr. Sen's report. See also section 17 of Act V of 1912. The clause, as drafted, makes no provision for charging the society with the costs of an enquiry as it is thought these should be borne by Government.

Clause 73 to 76.—Winding up and Liquidation.—See paragraphs 368 to 374 of Mr. Sen's report.

- (a) Winding up by the Court may be done in the case of provident societies being companies in any of the circumstances in which companies may be wound up by the Court under the Indian Companies Act and also on the special ground contained in sub-clause (2).
- (b) The voluntary winding up of a provident society being a company is to be in the manner provided by the Indian Companies Act, but only for the reasons stated in sub-clause (3).
- (c) Provident societies that are not companies to which the Companies Act applies cannot be wound up under that Act at all. So this Act has to provide for them.

Sub-clause (4) makes the only provision that there is for such societies, that is to say, voluntary winding up on a resolution by the proprietors, compulsory winding up on an order by the Superintendent of Insurance. Clause 75 applies to such cases as well as to winding up under the Companies Act and clauses 76 and 77 will also so apply.

Clause 74.—This clause gives effect to the last portion of paragraph 368 of Mr. Sen's report, page 111.

Clause 75.—Sub-clause (1).—See paragraph 368A (ii), page 111, and paragraph 368 of Mr. Sen's report.

Sub-clause (2).—See paragraph 372 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 76.—See paragraph 371 of Mr. Sen's report and sub-section (2) of section 19 of Act V of 1912.

Clause 77.—See paragraph 370 of Mr. Sen's report.

Sub-clause (12) read with clause 85(2) (h) enables supplementary provisions to be made regarding liquidation if the provisions contained in clauses 73 to 76 prove inadequate.

Clause 78.—See paragraph 375 of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 79.—See paragraphs 376 and 389 of Mr. Sen's report.

The effect of this clause is to make all policies of whatever kind issued by a provident society assignable and capable of nomination, and not merely policies on a human life.

Sub-clause (3) gives effect to paragraph 381(I) of Mr. Sen's report.

Clause 80 reproduces section 20 of Act V of 1912.

Clauses 81 to 90.—These collect and consolidate miscellaneous provisions of Act V of 1912 and Act VI of 1912 and add a few minor provisions.

Clauses 81, 82 and 83 reproduce sections 34, 35 and 36 of Act VI of 1912 and sections 21, 22 and 23 of Act V of 1912.

Clause 84 reproduces section 38 of Act VI of 1912 and clause 3 (2) of the 1925 Bill.

Clause 85 reproduces section 37 of Act VI of 1912 and section 24 of Act V of 1912.

Sub-clause (2) is designed to carry over the existing Local Government rules regulating provident societies.

Clause 86 reproduces section 31 of Act VI of 1912 and clause 56 of the 1925 Bill.

Clause 87 is new and is inserted to provide against the possibility that the work of supervising provident societies might prove too extensive for the Superintendent of Insurance to do.

Clause 88 reproduces section 41 of Act VI of 1912 and section 26 of Act V of 1912.

Clause 89 makes an amendment in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, consequential on clause 31.

Clause 90.—See paragraph 209(I) of Mr. Sen's report.

THE SCHEDULES.

The Six Schedules reproduce Schedules II to VII of the Clauson Bill with modifications.

Schedule I, corresponding to Clauson Schedule II.

Part 1.—Regulation 1 has been simplified; the references to statutory funds in regulation 7(c) have been omitted and in regulation 8 the references to "feu duties" and "Lands and Heritages in Scotland" have been omitted, and the reference to "Freehold and Leasehold property" has been altered to correspond with the changed wording in Form A.

Part II.—Form A. There are only three columns on each side of the balance-sheet instead of five, as there is only one separate fund. Under the Liability side the sub-headings under "Balances of funds and accounts" have been altered to correspond with the four classes of insurance adopted in the Bill. On the Assets side the sub-heads under "Investments" have been modified on the lines of the balance-sheet contained in the Third Schedule of Act VI of 1912. Note (h) of Clauson is omitted and note (g), now (f), has been modified.

Schedule II, Clauson Schedule III.

Part I.—Regulation 3 has been modified as there is only one class of insurance in respect of which a separate fund is kept.

Part II.—Forms B and C have not been altered.

Schedule III, Clauson Schedule IV.

Part I.—Regulations 1 and 2 have been altered to meet the proposals of the Bill that while only in the case of life insurance including annuity business is there to be a separation of assets, in the case of the four classes of business into which insurance is to be divided there are to be separate accounts.

Regulation 6 omits references to “continuous disability business”, “capital redemption business”, and “industrial assurance business”.

Regulations 7, 8 and 9 are modified in view of the fact that there is only one separate fund, namely, that for life insurance.

Among the Forms, Form E of Clauson has been omitted.

Schedule IV, Clauson Schedule V.

Parts IIB, IIC, III and IV have been omitted, and in consequence in Part I regulation 1 has been simplified.

Regulations 2, 3 and 4 and 9 and 10 of Part I have been omitted.

Regulations 5 to 8 of Clauson, now numbered 2 to 5, have been consequentially simplified.

In regulation 11 (now 7) the definition of “standard basis”, necessary for the interpretation of Part IV of the Clauson Schedule, has been omitted. In view of the small volume of workmen’s compensation business in British India, the complicated requirements of Part IV are unnecessary.

Schedule V, Clauson Schedule VI.

Parts III and IV have been omitted altogether. The only statement required by clause 11(4) of the Bill is the statement of life insurance business in force. Hence in Part I regulations 3 and 4 have been omitted and in Part II the reference to “industrial assurance” in the heading and in the proviso to paragraph 1 has been omitted. In paragraph 6 of Part II the reference to “Statements prepared under the enactments repealed by this Act” has been omitted, since no such statement was required under Act VI of 1912.

Schedule VI, Clauson Schedule VII.

Only the first paragraph of Part I, has been retained. Paragraph 2 of Part I appears unnecessary. The rule contained in Part II appears in the body of the Bill.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 1st February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 5 OF 1937.

A Bill to amend the Contempt of Courts Act, 1926, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Contempt of Courts Act, 1926, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; XII of 1926.
It is hereby enacted as follows:—

- | | |
|---|--|
| Short title. | 1. This Act may be called the Contempt of Courts (Amendment) Act, 1937. |
| Amendment of preamble to Act XII of 1926. | 2. In the preamble to the Contempt of Courts Act, 1926 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the word "subordinate" shall be omitted. XII of 1926. |
| Amendment of section 3, Act XII of 1926. | 3. To section 3 of the said Act the following proviso shall be added, namely:—
"Provided further that notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in any law no High Court shall impose a sentence in excess of that specified in this section for any contempt either in respect of itself or of a Court subordinate to it." |

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It has been held by a High Court that the power of punishment provided in section 3 of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1926 (XII of 1926), relates to the contempt of Courts subordinate to it, and that it has no application to the contempt of itself, to punish which it possesses inherent power to pass a sentence without regard to the limit of six months. The original intention of the enactment of section 3 was to restrict the powers of High Courts in the punishment of any contempts whether of themselves or of Courts subordinate to them. The Bill proposes to make the intention clear.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 10th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL NO. 9 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, for the purpose herein-after appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Workmen's Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 35, Act VIII of 1923.

2. (1) Section 35 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) of that section and in the said section as so re-numbered—

- (a) for the words "paid to" the words "deposited with" shall be substituted;
- (b) for the words "for the benefit of", where they occur for the first time, the words "which has been awarded to or may be due to" shall be substituted;
- (c) after the word "receipt" the word "distribution" shall be inserted;
- (d) for the word "awarded" the word "deposited" shall be substituted; and
- (e) for the words "and applicable for the benefit of" the words "which has been awarded to or may be due to" shall be substituted.

(2) To the said section as so re-numbered the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that no sum deposited under this Act in respect of fatal accidents shall be so transferred without the consent of the employer concerned until the Commissioner receiving the sum has passed orders determining its distribution and apportionment under the provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 8.”

(3) After the said section as so re-numbered the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(2) Where money deposited with a Commissioner has been so transferred in accordance with the rules made under this section, the provisions elsewhere contained in this Act regarding distribution by the Commissioner of compensation deposited with him shall cease to apply in respect of any such money.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 35 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (VIII of 1923), enables rules to be made for the transfer of sums paid to Commissioners in India as compensation for the benefit of persons abroad or paid to authorities abroad as compensation for persons in India. But it does not provide for the transfer of distribution proceedings when the employer does not object and the dependents are in another country than the one in which the compensation is deposited. The amendment is designed to make this possible, and is required, in the first instance, to provide for transfers between Burma and India after separation. At present, distribution proceedings can be transferred from Burma to provinces in India and vice versa under section 21 (2) of the Act; but this will cease to be applicable when Burma becomes a separate country.

F. NOYCE.

NEW DELHI;

The 5th February, 1937.

NOTE.

Section 35 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, is as follows:—

- “35. The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, make rules for the transfer to any part of His Majesty's Dominions or to any other country of money paid to a Commissioner under this Act for the benefit of any person residing or about to reside in such part or country and for the receipt and administration in British India of any money awarded under the law relating to workmen's compensation in any part of His Majesty's Dominions or in any other country, and applicable for the benefit of any person residing or about to reside in British India.”

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 19th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL NO. 12 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Tea Cess Act, 1903, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Tea Cess Act, 1903, for the purpose of securing that the said Act should cease to be in force in Burma; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Tea Cess (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 1, Act IX of 1903.

2. To sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Indian Tea Cess Act, 1903, the words "and Burma" shall be added.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Government of India have had under consideration the question of continuance of the Indian Tea Cess Act, 1903 (IX of 1903), in Burma on the separation of that country from India. It is felt that in view of the small income likely to result from any duty imposed on the comparatively unimportant tea exports from Burma and the fact that Burma is not represented on the Indian Tea Market Expansion Board, which administers the funds accruing from the duty imposed under the Act, continued application of the Act to Burma after separation is not only unnecessary but is likely to lead to considerable friction over the distribution of the Board's efforts as between India and Burma's teas.

It has accordingly been decided, in consultation with the tea industry in India and the Government of Burma, to exclude Burma from the operation of the Act. As under section 148 of the Government of Burma Act, 1935, all laws in force in Burma immediately before separation will continue in force there until altered or repealed or amended, it is necessary that the Indian Tea Cess Act should be amended before April 1, 1937, so as to exclude Burma from its scope.

The present Bill incorporates the amending legislation.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 1st February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 6 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 16, Act XI of 1922.

2. To section 16 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 XI of 1922. (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(3) In computing the total income of any individual for the purpose of assessment, there shall be included—

(a) so much of the income of a wife or minor child of such individual as arises—

(i) from the membership of the wife in a firm of which her husband is a partner;

(ii) from the admission of the minor to the benefits of partnership in a firm of which such individual is a partner;

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 87 (2) of the Government of India Act.

- (iii) from assets transferred directly or indirectly to the wife by the husband otherwise than for adequate consideration or in connection with an agreement to live apart; or
- (iv) from assets transferred directly or indirectly to the minor child, not being a married daughter, by such individual:

and

- (b) so much of the income of any association of individuals consisting of such individual and his wife as arises from assets transferred to the association by such individual."

Amendment
of section 18,
Act XI of 1922.

3. To sub-section (5) of section 18 of the said Act the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided further that where such person or owner is a person whose income is included under the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 16 in the total income of another person that person shall be deemed to be the person or owner on whose behalf payment has been made and to whom credit shall be given in the assessment for the following year."

Amendment
of section 48,
Act XI of 1922.

4. After sub-section (3) of section 48 of the said Act the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(3A) Where the shareholder referred to in sub-section (1), or the member of a registered firm or the minor admitted to the benefits of partnership referred to in sub-section (2), or the owner of a security referred to in sub-section (3) is a person whose income is included under the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 16 in the total income of another person, the provisions of sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall apply as if that person were himself the person entitled to a refund under those sub-sections."

Operation of section 2.

5. The amendment made in the said Act by section 2 shall not have effect in respect of any income chargeable to income-tax for any year ending before the 1st day of April, 1937.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Reference is made in sections 1 and 4 of Chapter III of the Income Tax Enquiry Report, 1936, to the practices of avoiding taxation by means of nominal partnerships between husband and wife or parent and minor child or by the nominal transfer of assets to a wife or minor child (or to an "association" consisting of husband and wife) when there is no substantial separation of the interests of the assessee and the wife or child. These practices are reported to have become very widespread already, with considerable detriment to the revenue, and there is little doubt that if they are not checked there will be progressive deterioration. The proposals in the Report regarding the aggregation of the incomes of husband and wife go beyond the immediate necessities of the case and to that extent their adoption would involve the admission of a new principle which the Government of India do not desire to establish in advance of the general public discussion of the Report which has been arranged; and the present Bill has been so drafted as to deal only with the abuses to which I have referred.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 8th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL No. 7 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Naval Armament Act, 1923, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Naval Armament Act, 1923, for the purpose of giving effect in British India to the Treaty for the Limitation of Naval Armament and for the Exchange of Information concerning Naval Construction signed in London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty-fifth day of March, 1936; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Naval Armament (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of preamble to Act VII of 1923.

2. In the preamble to the Indian Naval Armament Act, 1923 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words beginning "Treaty for the Limitation of Naval Armament signed at Washington" and ending "signed at London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty-second day of April, 1930" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

VII of 1923.

"Treaty for the Limitation of Naval Armament and for the Exchange of Information concerning Naval Construction signed in London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty-fifth day of March, 1936".

Amendment of section 2, Act VII of 1923.

3. In section 2 of the said Act, for clause (c) the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(c) 'the Treaty' means the Treaty for the Limitation of Naval Armament and for the Exchange of Information concerning Naval Construction signed in London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty-fifth day of March, 1936."

Amendment of section 4, Act VII of 1923.

4. To section 4 of the said Act the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

"(3) Any person who, in pursuance of a licence granted under sub-section (1) before the commencement of the Indian Naval Armament (Amendment) Act, 1937, is engaged in building any vessel of war or in altering, arming or equipping any ship so as to adapt her for use as a vessel of war, or is about to despatch or deliver, or allow to be despatched or delivered, from any place within British India any ship which has been so built, altered, armed or equipped, either entirely or partly, within British India, shall, upon written demand, furnish to the Local Government such designs and particulars as may be required by the Local Government for the purpose of securing the observance of the obligations imposed by the Treaty."

.. of 1937.

Amendment of section 5, Act VII of 1923.

5. In sub-section (1) of section 5 of the said Act, after the word and figure "section 3" the following shall be inserted, namely:—

"or fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 4".

Omission of the Schedule to Act VII of 1923.

6. The Schedule to the said Act shall be omitted.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Indian Naval Armament Act, 1923 (VII of 1923), as amended by Act VIII of 1931, was passed by the Indian Legislature to give effect in British India to the Treaties for the Limitation of Naval Armaments signed on behalf of His Majesty in 1922 and 1930. These Treaties—except for Part IV of the latter—expired on the 31st December 1936, and Act VII of 1923 will consequently cease to have effect unless it is so amended as to substitute reference to the Treaty signed on behalf of the British Commonwealth of Nations and certain other Powers on the 25th March 1936, for the references to the Treaties of 1922 and 1930. The chief characteristics of the Treaty which came into force on the 1st January 1937, and which will remain operative until the 31st December 1942, are limitation in the tonnage of ships and in the calibre of guns and certain new provisions regarding the exchange of information concerning naval construction between the High Contracting Parties. It also keeps alive the principle which has prevailed for the last fifteen years that the naval armaments of the principal Maritime Powers are to be restricted by agreement and makes it possible for the reduction of naval armaments to be further extended when international conditions are more settled than they were when the Treaty was contracted.

The Government of India have agreed to ratify the new Treaty of 1936 and, to give effect to it, they propose to amend the Indian Naval Armament Act (VII of 1923) on the lines of the amendment recently made in the corresponding English Act.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 19th February, 1937:—

L. A. BILL NO. 11 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

IX of 1908.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Limitation (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of Article 149, First Schedule to Act IX of 1908.

2. In Article 149 in the First Division of the First Schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, to the entry in the first column the following words shall be added, namely:—

IX of 1908.

“except a suit before the Federal Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Article 149 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), prescribes a special period of limitation of 60 years for any suit by or on behalf of the Secretary of State for India in Council. This Article will in future govern suits by a Province against a Province or between a Province and the Federation. The reasons which justify a specially long period of limitation for suits by the Crown against a private person hardly seem applicable where both parties represent the Crown. It is, therefore, necessary to amend the Article by excluding from its scope suits brought before the Federal Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction.

L. A. BILL No. 13 OF 1937.

*A Bill further to amend the Indian Army Act, 1911,
for a certain purpose.*

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Army Act, 1911, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— VIII of 1911.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Army (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 2, Act
VIII of 1911.

2. In section 2 of the Indian Army Act, 1911,— VIII of 1911.
(a) to clause (a) of sub-section (1) the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that a person holding a commission in the Army in India Reserve of Officers shall be so subject only when ordered on any duty or service for which he is liable as a member of such reserve force.”; and

(b) to sub-section (2) the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided that an officer of the Indian Land Forces retired therefrom and appointed to the Indian Regular Reserve of Officers shall again become so subject when ordered on any duty or service for which he is liable as a member of such reserve force.”

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the sanction required by section 67 (2) of the Government of India Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under section 175 (9) of the Army Act, officers of the British wing of the Army in India Reserve of Officers are only subject to military law when called out in a military capacity. There is no corresponding provision in the Indian Army Act for officers in the Indian wing of the Army in India Reserve of Officers. It is proposed, therefore, to amend the Indian Army Act, 1911 (VIII of 1911), to put officers of the Indian wing in exactly the same position as officers in the British wing.

2. When Indian Commissioned Officers retire, they are liable under certain conditions to join the new Indian Regular Reserve. There is however no provision in the Indian Army Act for the subjection to military law of a retired officer who is in this Reserve. This defect is being remedied, but at the same time steps are being taken to ensure that such officers will only be subject to military law when ordered on any duty or service for which they are liable as members of the Reserve.

The object of this Bill is to continue for a further period of one year certain duties and taxes imposed under the Indian Finance Act, 1936, which would otherwise cease to have effect from the 1st April, 1937; and to increase the import and excise duties on silver and sugar.

2. Clause 2 provides for the continuance for a further period of one year of the existing provisions regarding salt duty. The duty of Rs. 1-4 0 per maund on salt remains liable to the additional duty imposed under section 5 of the Indian Finance (Supplementary and Extending) Act, 1931.

3. Clause 3 provides for the increase in the excise duty on khandsari sugar from 10 annas per cwt. to Rs. 1-5 per cwt. and on sugar, other than khandsari or palmyra, from Rs. 1-5 per cwt. to Rs. 2 per cwt.

6. Clause 6 provides for the continuance for a further period of one year of the present inland postage rates with the following alterations :—

- (1) Book, Pattern and Sample Packets.—The present rate is nine pies for the first five tolas and six pies for every additional five tolas. It is proposed to reduce the rate to six pies for the first 2½ tolas and three pies for every additional 2½ tolas.
- (2) Parcels.—It is proposed to eliminate the present rate of 2 annas for parcels weighing up to 20 tolas, so that all parcels weighing 40 tolas or less will be charged 4 annas.

7. Clause 7 provides for the continuance for a further period of one year of the existing rates of income-tax and super-tax.

8. The reasons for making the above changes have been fully explained in my budget speech.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 4th March, 1937 :—

L. A. BILL NO. 15 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

short title.

1. This Act may be called the Code of Civil Procedure (Third Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of rule 3, Order XXXII, First Schedule to Act V of 1908.

2. In the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in Order XXXII, to rule 3 the following sub-rule shall be added, namely :—

“(5) A person appointed under sub-rule (1) to be guardian for the suit for a minor shall, unless his appointment is terminated by retirement, removal or death, continue as such throughout all proceedings arising out of the suit including proceedings in any appellate or revisional Court and any proceedings in the execution of a decree.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Rule 3 of Order XXXII of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, lays down that where the defendant is a minor, the Court shall appoint a proper person to be guardian for the suit for such minor. It has been held by the High Courts that an appointment made during the course of original suit endures during proceedings on appeal. There is no provision in the Code requiring fresh appointment of guardians for the execution proceedings following suits. It might therefore be thought that a guardian ad litem appointed during a suit continues as such till the termination of the execution proceedings. But some High Courts follow a different interpretation and one of them has held that the guardian ad litem appointed by a Court for a minor defendant does not continue to be the guardian for the suit in the execution proceedings without a fresh appointment. The Bill proposes to make it clear that the appointment endures throughout all proceedings arising out of the suit, including those in any appellate or revisional Court and those in the execution of a decree.*

Soft Coke Cess
Committee.

2. On the commencement of this Act, the Committee constituted under sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Indian Soft Coke Cess Act, 1929, shall stand dissolved, and shall be reconstituted in the manner provided in section 4 of the said Act as amended by section 4 of this Act.

Vesting of moneys in the reconstituted
Committee.

3. All the moneys held by the dissolved Committee shall vest in the Committee as reconstituted under section 2.

Amendment of Act VIII of 1929.

4. In the Indian Soft Coke Cess Act, 1929,—

(a) in the long title and in the preamble, the word "and," where it occurs for the first time, shall be omitted ;

(b) in sub-section (1) of section 3, the word "and," where it occurs for the second time, shall be omitted ; and

(c) in sub-section (1) of section 4,—

(i) in clause (iii), the words "and Orissa" shall be omitted ;

(ii) in clause (iv), for the word "seven" the word "three" shall be substituted, and the word "and" shall be omitted ;

(iii) for clause (v) the following clause shall be substituted, namely :—

"(v) two persons nominated by the Indian Mining Association ; and " ; and

(iv) after clause (v) the following clause shall be inserted, namely :—

"(vi) three persons nominated by the Indian Colliery Owners' Association."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The present representation of non-official bodies on the Soft Coke Cess Committee; constituted under section 4 (1) of the Indian Soft Coke Cess Act, 1929, consists of seven persons nominated by the Indian Mining Federation and one person nominated by the Indian Mining Association. This allocation of seats was originally adopted because practically all the proprietors of collieries which produce soft coke were then members of the Indian Mining Federation. The position has, however, since been altered owing to the interest which other bodies engaged in this industry have acquired in the manufacture of soft coke, and the Indian Colliery Owners' Association have for this reason been pressing for some time for separate representation on the Committee on the basis of the output of soft coke by their members. An examination on this basis of the relative importance of the various interested bodies shows that the claim of this Association is justified and that a readjustment of the representation of non-official bodies on the Committee is necessary in the manner proposed in the Bill.

It is further proposed to amend the Act so as to provide that the nomination hitherto made by the Government of Bihar and Orissa will in future be made by the Government of Bihar in whose territory the coalfields are mainly situated. The Bill is also intended to give effect to this proposal, and to certain formal changes in the long title and preamble and in section 3 (1) of the Act rendered necessary by the constitution of Orissa as a separate Province.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 15th March, 1937:—

L. A. BILL NO. 18 OF 1937.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Oaths Act, 1873, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Oaths Act, 1873, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Oaths (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Amendment of section 5, Act X of 1873.

2. In section 5 of the Indian Oaths Act, 1873, after the word "jurors" the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

"Provided that where the witness is a child under twelve years of age, and the Court or person having authority to examine such witness is of opinion that he does not understand the nature of an oath or affirmation, the foregoing provisions of this section and the provisions of section 6 shall not apply to such witness, but in any such case the absence of an oath or affirmation shall not render inadmissible any evidence given by such witness nor affect the obligation of the witness to state the truth."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Sections 5 and 6 of the Indian Oaths Act, 1873, make it obligatory upon all persons who may be lawfully examined or may give evidence to make an oath or affirmation, and section 118 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, makes only such persons competent to testify who are not prevented from understanding questions put to them and from giving rational answers to those questions by reason of tender years, etc. The combined effect of these provisions is that, unless in the opinion of the Court the tender years of a child appearing as a witness prevent him from understanding the questions put to him and from giving rational answers, he is a competent witness and must be sworn. The English Law—section 38 of the Children and Young Persons Act, 1933—provides for the contingency, not recognised by the Indian law, of a child being possessed of sufficient intelligence to justify the reception of his evidence, and understanding the duty of speaking the truth but not understanding the nature of an oath. The principle of the English law is considered more sound. The Bill proposes to bring the Indian law in its application to both civil and criminal proceedings into conformity with the English law by inserting a proviso to section 5 of the Indian Oaths Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Certain commercial documents of various kinds are by the practice of merchants accepted as evidence and taken as prima facie correct, but in a Court of law they cannot in the absence of consent by the parties, be admitted in evidence without testimony as to their genuineness or the correctness of the statements made therein. Such documents are not admissible in evidence under section 32 or any other provision of the Indian Evidence Act, 1873, without further proof. The result is that a party desirous of delaying the proceedings can often insist on the other side getting Commissions issued to take evidence as to facts which are for all practical purposes sufficiently established by the documents in question. It is proposed to undertake legislation on the lines of the Bankers Books Evidence Act, 1891, so as to provide that commercial documents which are accepted as prima facie correct in commercial circles may be admitted in evidence without formal proof. A list of such documents has been prepared in consultation with Commercial Associations and Local Governments, and is included in the Schedule to the Bill, power being reserved to the Government of India to add to the list from time to time and to remove items from it.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 7th April, 1937 —

C. OF S. BILL NO. 2 OF 1937.

A Bill to control the Coastal Traffic of India.

WHEREAS it is expedient to encourage the development of an Indian Mercantile Marine

AND WHEREAS for this purpose it is expedient to control unfair competition in the Coastal Traffic of India ;

It is hereby enacted as follows —

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Control of Coastal Traffic of India Act, 1937 .
- (2) It extends to the whole of the coastal traffic of British India and of the continent of India.
- (3) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

Definitions.

2. (1) Any person employing a ship or sailing vessel for carriage of goods or passengers between any two ports in British India or between any port in British India and any port or place in the continent of India and vice versa shall be deemed to carry on business in coastal traffic in British India.
- (2) The word "person" shall include any company or association or body of individuals whether incorporated or not.
- (3) The word "owner" shall include a charterer and in the case of a person not resident in British India shall include his agent in British India.

Agent of non-resident owner.

3. Any owner who is not a resident of British India shall within three months from the date of this Act coming into force lodge with the Governor General in Council the name and address of a person resident in British India who shall be his agent for the purpose of his business. Every such owner shall execute general power of attorney in favour of such an agent, and a copy of such power of attorney shall be lodged with the Governor General in Council along with the name and address of such agent.

Licence to carry on business in coastal traffic.

4. No person being the owner of a ship or sailing vessel of any description shall be entitled to carry on business in coastal traffic in British India unless he obtained a licence for the purpose from the Governor General in Council.

Penalty for carrying on business without licence.

5. Any person carrying on business in coastal traffic in British India without obtaining a licence as herein provided shall be liable to be punished on summary conviction by a Magistrate with First Class powers appointed for the purpose by the Governor General in Council with a fine not exceeding Rs. 10,000 and may at the option of the Governor General in Council be debarred from bringing in any ship or sailing vessel into any port in British India for such terms and on such conditions as the Governor General in Council may direct, in which latter event the Governor General in Council shall allow such person an opportunity of making his submissions, if any, and shall mention the grounds on which such order is based.

Minimum and maximum freight and fare

6. No owner of a ship or sailing vessel shall charge as freight and fare for the carriage of goods and passengers, respectively, from any port in British India to any other ports in British India or the continent of India or vice versa a sum below the minimum sum prescribed for the purpose by the Governor General in Council, nor shall he or they charge any sum in excess of the maximum prescribed for the purpose by the Governor General in Council.

Grant of rebates or concessions.

7. No owner of a ship or a sailing vessel engaged in carrying on the business of coastal traffic in British India shall, directly or indirectly, pay any rebate or commission to any person whose goods may be carried by such owner in his ship or sailing vessel to or from any port in British India, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent such owner from paying the customary brokerage or commission to any broker who procures freight for him.

8. Any owner of a ship or a sailing vessel committing a breach of the provisions of clauses 6 and 7 hereof shall be liable to have his licence cancelled altogether or suspended for a period considered necessary by a notification to be published by the Governor General in Council in the Official Gazette, provided that the notification shall mention the grounds on which such licence is being cancelled or suspended. No licence shall be either cancelled or suspended without first giving to such owner an opportunity of making his submissions, if any, to the Governor General in Council.

Terms and conditions of licence and the fixing of maximum and minimum rates.

9. The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Official Gazette, from time to time prescribe (a) the terms and conditions upon which a licence to carry on business in coastal traffic shall be granted, (b) the minimum and the maximum rate which may be charged for carriage of goods or passengers from any port in British India to any other port in British India or Burma or Ceylon or vice versa.

Appeal.

10. Any owner aggrieved by either an order passed by the Governor General in Council debarring him from bringing any ship or sailing vessel into any port in British India in accordance with the provisions of clause 7 hereof, or an order cancelling his licence in accordance with the provisions of clause 8 hereof shall be entitled to prefer an appeal to the High Court, and such Court shall on such appeal be competent to set aside, confirm or modify any order passed by the Governor General in Council.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill was originally introduced by me in the last Council and was circulated for eliciting opinions thereon. It however fell through with the dissolution of the Council.

It has since been redrafted with a view to meet certain criticisms to which the Bill as originally drafted had been subjected both as regards certain of its provisions as well as matters of which no cognizance had been taken.

The object of this Bill continues the same as before. It is intended to remove a possible impediment to the growth and development of the Indian Mercantile Marine. There is no question of any discrimination between British and Indian shipping. Past experience, however, shows that a well established powerful company engaged in coastal traffic can easily put a new venture out of action by unfair competition, e.g., rate-cutting, grant of rebates, etc. The fear of unfair competition deters Indian capital being invested in coastal shipping. If the Governor General in Council be given power to prevent such competition, the fear will be largely allayed and a new line of commercial activity may be opened out to Indians.

By this Bill it is provided that only persons holding licences from the Governor General in Council will be entitled to carry on business in coastal traffic in India. Power is also given to the Governor General in Council to fix the maximum and the minimum rates of freight and fares and also to prevent the grant of rebates or other concessions which are calculated to reduce such minimum rates. The carrying on of business in coastal traffic without a licence is made penal as also the contravention of any rule prescribed by the Governor General in Council with regard to the grant of rebates or other concessions.

[As introduced in the Legislative Assembly.]

A Bill to declare that properties of a Muslim dying intestate and without any heir devolve upon the Muslim Community.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether properties of an intestate owner dying without any heir should devolve upon the Muslim Community or be escheated to the Crown ;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to resolve such doubts ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title,
application and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Muslim Intestate Succession Act, 193 .

(2) It shall apply to the estate both moveable and immoveable of a Muslim, subject to the Muslim law of succession, dying intestate without any heir, and shall extend to the whole of British India.

Devolution of intestate estate.

2. Notwithstanding any law or custom to the contrary, the estate of a Muslim, subject to the Muslim law of succession, dying intestate without any heir shall devolve on the Muslim Community and shall not escheat to the Crown.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill is intended to provide that the estate of an intestate Muslim, subject to the Muslim law, dying without any heir shall devolve on the Muslim Community in accordance with the Shariat in preference to its escheating to the Crown.

This rule of common law is inapplicable to Muslims who are subject to their own law which provides for such a contingency.

Section 112 of the Government of India Act provides :—

“The High Courts at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay in the exercise of their original jurisdiction in suits against inhabitants of Calcutta, Madras or Bombay, as the case may be, shall, in matters of inheritance and succession to lands, rents and goods, and in matters of contract and dealing between party and party, when both parties are subject to the same personal law or custom having the force of law, decide according to that personal law or custom, and when the parties are subject to different personal laws or customs having the force of law, decide according to the law or custom to which the defendant is subject.”

The effect of this section is that in matters of inheritance and succession to both moveable and immoveable properties, the law to be administered to the Muslims is their personal law which in this respect has not been altered or established by any legislative enactment. The pure rule of Muslim law is that the property of an intestate and heirless Muslim on his death devolves upon the Muslim Community on whose behalf the Baitul-mal, if existing in any locality, may receive it, or which may make any other arrangements for the custody, maintenance and expenditure of such properties. - (b) It extends to the whole of British India.
- (c) It shall come into force from the

2. After section 196B of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898, the following section shall be added, viz. :—

3. In column 8 against section 124A in Schedule II, Chapter VI—Offences against the State, the word “Ditto” be substituted for the words beginning with “Court of session” and ending with “in that behalf” both inclusive.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

All offences against the State under Chapter VI of the Indian Penal Code except section 124A (sedition) are triable by jury. It is highly desirable that offences under section 124A should also be made triable by jury and this Bill has been put forward to achieve this object.
